

Arts Grants Awarded in Clearwater County

Region 2 Arts Council (R2AC) awarded $30,259 to arts organizations, schools, non-profits, and individual Artists in Clearwater County in FY2016.

Bagley Area Arts Collaborative was awarded a $6,000 Arts & Cultural Heritage Grant to assist in funding a “Musical Tour of Scandinavia” concert series featuring artists performing traditional musical styles from many Scandinavian countries.

The Clearbrook Soo Line Depot was awarded a $4,800 Arts & Cultural Heritage Grant for Small Towns to assist in funding a public art piece, in the form of a sculptural sign, by local artist Jay Jones.

Farm By the Lake in Bagley was awarded a $4,225 Arts & Cultural Heritage Grant for Small Towns to assist in funding a summer concert series culminating in an arts festival featuring local painters, sculptors, writers, and musicians.

Clear Waters Life Center in Clearbrook was awarded a $4,108 Arts & Cultural Heritage Grant for Small Towns to assist in funding “Create it!” community art classes.

Bagley Public Schools Community Education Program was awarded a $2,703 Arts & Cultural Heritage Grant for Small Towns to assist in funding their collaboration with Prairie Fire Theater Company to provide a summer theater camp for children.

Clearbrook-Gonvick Community Education Program was awarded a $2,423 Arts Project Grant to assist in funding a Prairie Fire Theater Company production of “Snow White” utilizing and training local young actors as part of their summer recreation program.

The Norda Gonvick Rosemalers were awarded a $338 Arts Project Grant to assist in funding a workshop with Ken Magnussen teaching the Rogeland style of rosemaling.

Pam Edevold of Shevlin was awarded a $6,000 Career Development Fellowship to create eighteen paintings in eighteen months for a solo exhibition of her work.