

Arts Grants Awarded in Clearwater County

Region 2 Arts Council (R2AC) awarded $40,388 to arts organizations, non-profits, institutions of higher learning, and individual artists in Clearwater County in FY 2022.

Bagley Area Arts Collaborative was awarded $5,000 in annual operating support through the 2-year Community Art Support Grant.

The Bagley Area Arts Collaborative was awarded a $5,258 Arts Access Grant to host workshops by a new watercolor artist and a new pottery artist in the community.

Bagley Area Arts Collaborative was awarded a $6,000 Arts Access Grant to produce a puppet presentation based on ancient tales and legends of Norwegian trolls.

Norda Gonvick Rosemalers were awarded a $2,009 Arts Access Grant to offer a class on Valdres-style rosemaling taught by Lois Mueller who holds a Vesterheim Gold Medal in rosemaling and has published several instructional books.

Clear Waters Life Center in Gonvick was awarded a $5,900 Arts Access Grant to offer 24 different art classes to engage community members in a variety of art forms featuring hands-on instruction by local artists.

Bagley Area Arts Collaborative was awarded a $5,797 Arts Access Grant to bring back two nationally known artists who are very popular with area and regional artists to offer newly designed workshops.

Bagley Area Arts Collaborative was awarded a $6,000 Arts Learning Grant to host a two-week arts experience for children in the Rice Lake and Bagley communities.

Bagley Area Arts Collaborative was awarded a $2,424 Arts Project Grant to host a three-day workshop with watercolor artist David R. Smith.

Tawnee Corning of Bagley was awarded a $2,000 Individual Artist Grant to create seven 24x30" still life oil paintings in classic renaissance style, paired with vivid colors, textures, and psychedelic patterns and backgrounds.